Meet Glenn

Hey...it's me...Glenn Strange (yes, that is my real name). I specialize in keynote entertainment for corporate and association events. Please believe me when I say,

"The success of your event and the happiness of you and your attendees are the most important things to me."

I look forward to making your group laugh and have fun!

I specialize in clean, tasteful comedy, with a touch of magic and inspiration. Watch your audience members have the time of their lives while laughing and doing fun things that you would have never imagined. They eagerly become participating stars of the show, and no one is embarrassed. Constant audience laughter fills the room, and in the end, all the praises come to you for a job well done.

How many times have you attended an event and watched the audience members start trickling away when the entertainment or the speaker begins? Matching the right entertainer with your audience is critical. Just remember, laughing people do not walk out and Glenn Strange's program will make your attendees laugh. GUARANTEED!!
